Pt. Reyes is spectacular any time of year. Terrain varies from tall grass open fields to deep cool fern lined lush forests to wildflower meadows to ocean bluffs to sandy beaches! There are trails for horses in various levels of conditioning, but your horse should definitely have some conditioning and be able to handle hills. Pt. Reyes trails are all fabulous!

I do not plan to lead rides longer than 3 hours due to level of conditioning this year, which means no long ride to the beach. That still leaves plenty of magnificent trails to enjoy. For those who want to, we can pack up camp on Sunday and haul over to Limentour Beach (less than 1/2 hour at most from camp) where they have a huge safe horse parking area, and it's a mere 10 minute ride to the beach!

Pt. Reyes has flush toilets, free hot showers, water spigots near each camping area. There are bbq pits and picnic tables. There are tall posts for picketing horses (you must bring an appropriate picket line), or you can trailer tie or bring portable corrals. Bring a water bucket for your horse, horse blanket and plenty of feed. Bring an 'apple picker' as we need to pile up manure. Bring a hose with a shut-off valve if you have one handy, we could probably use a few!

There will be a potluck on Saturday night. Bring a dish or hors doevres to share and your own meat for the grill. If it's a small group we'll coordinate food. Be sure to bring drinking water for yourself. And please bring WOOD if you have any. A grill will be provided for both Friday and Saturday nights.
